

In Loving Memory

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved mother, Jean Capehart Eng, who left this world peacefully to go home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus at the age of 87, on October 19, 2024. Born August 12, 1937 in Galena, Kansas to Samuel and Mary Jane Capehart, she was preceded in death by her "ku'uipo," best friend and devoted husband of 51 years, Don Eng.

She is survived by her four children, daughter, Debi Emery and husband Bill, grandson Brian Emery (Cassidy), great grandchildren Grace, Parker and Willard, granddaughter Allison Wilson (Alex), great grandchildren Brooks, Brayden and Elliot, granddaughter Katie Toews (Kevin), great grandchildren Adelaide, Emery, Isaac and Jacob, daughter Melanie Price, granddaughter Kasey, grandson Zac (Taylor), daughter Stephanie Allen and husband Jack, son Michael Eng and wife Sasha, granddaughters Gabriella, Olivia and Eva, and many nieces, nephews, family and loved ones. Her brother was the late Barney Capehart of Gainesville, Florida.

Jean was a graduate of Will Rogers High School. In her teens, she fell in love with the handsome neighbor boy across the street, Donald Eng. At the age of 18, they were married and the two began an adventure in Japan, where they lived on the officer's naval base while Don served in the US Navy. Jean started her professional career as a medical secretary for her father Dr. Sam Capehart. Later, she and Don became Oklahoma Real Estate Commission licensed agents and both began working at Sunshine Properties. She transitioned from selling houses to partnering with Don in a homebuilding business, initially called Cornerstone Properties: Mansions for the Father's Children and later Don Eng Homes, where one of her many areas of expertise was interior design and decoration.

Jean led a women's Bible study group at Sheridan Christian Center and later Victory Christian Center. She was an ordained minister with Prophetic Worship Center in Naples, Florida, a graduate of Tulsa School of Kingdom Ministry and a Christian book author. Jean loved to give her time to others and was a volunteer and prayer partner at Eugene Field Elementary School until her final days.

While in Sasebo, Japan with Don, she spent time floral arranging. She and Don were in square dance clubs and were seasoned big band and ballroom dancers.

She loved to dance, but her favorite pastime was always reading her Bible, studying her concordances and learning more about God's Word. She had a deep love for the Lord, serving and walking alongside Him her entire life. This strong foundation in Christ was instilled in her four children and passed down to generations that followed.

Jean had a giving spirit and always wanted to share and spread joy, with a hug, a treat or even a prophetic Word. She was a pillar of strength for her family and touched the lives of countless others with her unwavering faith, exuberant joy and compassion for everyone she knew. Her wisdom, intercessory prayer and overflowing love will be greatly missed, but her spirit will live on in the hearts of everyone who had the privilege to know her.

We love you so deeply,
We love you so much,
We love the sound of your voice
And your sweet, gentle touch.
We love your warm smile
And your kind, sharing way,
The joy that you bring
To our lives every day.
We love you today,
As we have from the start,
And we'll love you forever
With all of our hearts.

We thank you for your love, concern, and prayer. Your attendance is a blessing to us and an honor to the one whose life we are here to celebrate.
We invite you to join us in Thomas Hall immediately following the service for a time of fellowship.

In my Father's house are many mansions:
if it were not so,
I would have told you.
I go to prepare a place for you.
John 14:2

I am the resurrection, and the life:
he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

John 11:25

Pastoral PrayerDr. Connie Jeske

The Lord's PrayerDr. Connie Jeske

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith: Apostles' CreedDr. Connie Jeske

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended to the dead;
on the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

*Closing Hymn: No. 344..... Kelly Ford
"It Is Well With My Soul"
